Hello CESA Council and Extended Council 2015-2016,

Congratulations to everyone on your election/ hiring! Sarah, Hannah and I are looking forward to working with you in the coming year to bring innovation and new energy to the Association. We are excited to get started and have already been working hard to hit the ground running when our term officially starts on May 1st.

Here are a few updates:

| Introductory Meetings |

I have met with Kanivanan Chinniah (President-Elect of the AMS) and Jennifer Li (Undergraduate Student Trustee-Elect) to discuss areas of collaboration for the upcoming year. Hannah, Sarah and I will be meeting with Peter Chin in the upcoming week. I will also be meeting with Mike Young (Rector) in the near future.

| President's Umbrella |

I have started meetings with all positions under my umbrella to discuss plans for the upcoming year. I will be wrapping up these meetings in the coming week.

| Council/ Extended Council Training |

Plans for a training session in September are currently underway. This will be a day of team bonding, learning and collaborating followed by a social. Everyone will have an active role in this session. Your Umbrella Head will be sending more information your way in the summer!

Thank you for getting to the end of my report. I am looking forward to an exciting year in Con-Ed!

Best of luck in Week 12 and exams!

David

Vice President Internal's Report

Hi CESA Council and Extended Council 2015-2016!

The time has finally come! I am looking forward to working with you all to better serve Con-Ed students in the coming year. I also cannot wait to get to know you all; you are such a diverse group of people with fresh perspectives that we are so happy to have. This year is going to be a fun adventure! This report will be about what I and the executive team been up to lately and what I will be doing this summer.

~ ASUS ~

I attended my first ASUS assembly on Thursday! The election of their speaker was moved to September. There were also interesting motions that were passed involving the hiring of Head Gael and Orientation Chairs. The recipients of the ASUS Sibling Society Grant were ratified; we received $400 to go towards the CESA pizza lunch event during frosh week! Also regarding ASUS, David, Hannah and I met with Brandon and Andrew two weeks ago to get to know each others' roles and talk about how we can to collaborate next year. We are looking forward to maintaining this positive relationship over the summer and throughout the year.

~ Umbrella ~

I have been able to meet with Will, Celine and Ellise, Jacob and Carma and Shannon and Jenna in the past week in regards to our plans for the upcoming year. Once they have been officially transitioned, I hope to meet with them once more before and continue communication over the summer.

~ Summer ~

Camp

I have already been in contact with Donna from Camp Kennebec, where camp was held last year. The date is 94% set for September 26-27th, the weekend after the second week of class. I am currently working on the theme and would be happy to take any suggestions! I will continue to plan camp over the summer and will begin marketing with Will in August.

Rebranding

The executive team is very excited about unifying the CESA brand next year. Will and I have been discussing new colours for our association, which we hope will help create a strong visual identity for CESA. We will be working over the summer to plan a rebrand launch event for September. Stay tuned for more on this exciting change!

That's all from me! I wish everyone luck in the last week of class and exams. Remember to take time to breathe and relax in these next few weeks. I am always here for a chat, hug or anything else, so don't hesitate to ask. Hidden surprise: the first person to email me at newvpinternal@cesa.queensu.ca with a link to their favourite YouTube video will get a fun treat at the council meeting.

Looking forward to a stellar year,

Sarah

Vice President External's Report

Hi Council & Extended Council,

It is so surreal that this is our first meeting with this new Council and I could not be more excited to start working with all of you! Here are just a few updates from my end:

TELC Meeting

I attended my first TELC meeting the other week and am looking forward to attending Faculty Board tomorrow. I met with Peter Chin and different TELC representatives and we discussed how different schools are tackling the changes to the Fac of Ed program being implemented by the government. Peter is planning to host a discussion panel to discuss what is being done with the four semestered Queen's program and new updates that he has. There will soon be a firm date set for fourth years to declare whether they will be doing a fourth semester or not, and there will be more concrete guidelines set when this same process takes place next year.

Alumni Homecoming Event

I have had a second meeting with Alumni Relations and a representative from the Faculty of Education and ideas are starting to come together. We are envisioning a one-night event composed of a reception, speaker and some kind of wine and cheese after party. The plan is to open up this event to a number of current students to promote student-alumni interactions. The Faculty of Education has offered to support us financially in acquiring a high-quality speaker, and I am definitely open to any ideas that you have for interesting and educational presenters.

Transition Meetings

It has been great meeting with the External umbrella so far. I have met with Joyce (Events Director), and she is well under way with transitioning her own umbrella and we set out a game plan for the year. I also met with Kyle (Equity Affairs Commissioner) and Vivi (Equity Outreach Director), and look forward to meeting with Suzanna (QCE Chair). I am excited for all of their ideas and all that they will do next year.

Summer Plans

This summer I will be working hard with teamwrc to fully establish the Homecoming Event and develop the CESA Clubs Policy. We are also looking at revitalizing the Office. I will be in Kingston all summer, so if you have any questions or ever want to chat (or be bffs) I'll be around :)

Good luck on exams!

Hannah

Senator's Report

My name is Scott Kell and I will be the incoming CESA Senator. I plan on attending the next two upcoming Senate meetings. This next Wednesday I will attend a Senate dinner where I hope to meet student senators from other faculties. I have also applied to a few of the Senate Committees so I will keep everyone posted if I am accepted into any of those and what they would involve. The committees I applied to are Academic Development, Senate Orientation Activities Review Board, and Academic Procedures. As for plans for next year, the Senate is responsible for all academic issues affecting Queen's, so if you or anyone you know has questions or would like to bring up any motions regarding academics let me know. I will do my best to find as much research on the idea as possible and bring it up during Senate Caucus meetings and eventually propose ideas to the Senate if need be.

AMS Representative's Report

Academic Affairs Commissioner's Report

Firstly, I am so excited to be beginning my term as CESA's Academic Affairs Commissioner very soon, and to work alongside Council this year to create another wonderful and inclusive year for the association!

Prior to the start of my role, I have been involved in various preparations and meetings to get a grasp on events and expectations pertaining to the role of Academic Affairs Commissioner. I have met with the previous Academic Affairs Commissioner, Erin Stewart quite a few times during this term. With Erin, I attended a PAAC meeting to meet some members at the Faculty of Education who I will be working alongside with within this role. I also participated alongside Erin and previous CESA President Abbey Cressman in an Academic Conference last month about technology's place within the university classroom. Erin and I are planning to meet for my official transition sometime next week, as well as to meet with the incoming ASUS Academic Affairs Commissioner. I am very much looking forward to be officially transitioned with Erin, and to meet with the academic representative from ASUS to establish a positive relationship and discuss collaborations with our sibling society for the upcoming school year.

I will also be meeting with CESA president David later this week to discuss the expectations for this role and for Academics as a whole for the association, which will be extremely beneficial for us to both be on the same page regarding Academics in CESA as we are heading into the summer vacation.

Even though I am not within this role yet, I will still strive to be an available resource for students, as exams and final assignments are approaching; I wish to continue being a resource throughout the summer (with the beginning of my term!), since so many students may be involved in various online courses through the university. Throughout the summer, I also plan on maintaining communication with various council members on how to prepare various academic support systems throughout the next school year.

That's all for now, folks! I wish everyone a lovely summer, and please do not be afraid to reach out for support during these busy academic times, and during the summer as well! I will always be here for you!

Oodles of Acs love,

Kate

Second Year Representatives' Report

Hello CESA Council 2015-2016!

Most of you may know us as #CELLISE but we also go by Ellise and Celine.

We are very excited to be the Second Year Representatives for the 2015-2016 school year, and we can't wait to get to know everyone on Council!

On Thursday we met with our Umbrella Head, Sarah, and briefly discussed some of our plans for the year, such as moving the Buddy Picnic to later in the afternoon. We are planning to meet up again during the exam period to talk about things in further detail before the summer. On Friday we will be meeting with Jacob and Carma to be transitioned into our positions, to ensure we are prepared for next year. We will give updates on this at Council on Sunday.

We have already created the "Queen's Con-Ed '19" group on Facebook and have been answering questions and welcoming the incoming Con-Ed students. Feel free to add yourselves to the page, if you wanted to help any of the incoming first year students as well!

<https://www.facebook.com/groups/1388231238068361/>

Over the summer, we will be keeping in touch with Sarah, Jacob, and Carma, planning the Buddy Picnic, and thinking of ideas for the upcoming school year!

We look forward to working with all of you next year!

With much Con-Ed Love,

Celine and Ellise (#CELLISE)

Third Year Representatives' Report

Hi everyone! We're Jacob and Carma, and we are the incoming Third Year Representatives for 2015-2016. We had two meetings on Friday; one was with Shannon and Jenna who transitioned us into our new role, and the other was transitioning Celine and Ellise into their new position as Second Year Reps. We had a third meeting with our new umbrella head Sarah on Saturday morning as well.

We are both excited to represent the 17s on CESA Council for a third year in a row, as well as to work with CESA Council and Extended Council this year.

Thanks,

Jarma

Fourth Year Representatives' Report

We are so excited to be back on Council for the upcoming 2015/2016 year! We had our first meeting with our umbrella head Sarah on Friday to talk about our plans for the year ahead. We also met with Jacob and Carma on Friday to go over their transition manual and the Con-Ed clothing documents. Equity Affairs Commissioner's Report

Hey everyone!

I'm extremely excited to see what working with all of you will bring forth in the coming year, and I'm especially looking forward to what the next year has in store.

I recently met with Hannah Ramsay and Vivi Shi to discuss our positions and goals for our term. One of my jobs this year is to run Anti-Oppression training for us, as all of us are resources for our faculty and it is imperative that we provide a welcoming atmosphere for anyone who approaches us with concerns. I am considering taking the slides for the training over the summer so that I can run the training myself. That being said, for those of you who were on council last year, if any of you have any concerns or issues you feel should be addressed in Anti-Oppression training (eg concepts of privilege, or proper pronoun usage) please feel free to contact me! In addition to this, for those of you who have taken positive space training please feel free to message me with anything that you feel could be added or expanded on (eg a specific sexuality, or questions regarding gender, etc...) in the training so I can potentially implement it. I would love to make this training as applicable as possible for us and your help could greatly influence this.

I am looking to meet with Oshean and Jonathon to transition Vivi and myself and discuss my questions I have regarding the position.

If I don't see any of you after this meeting I hope you all of a wonderful summer!

All the best,
Kyle

Equity Outreach Director's Report

Hello CESA Council,

I am extremely excited to take on the role as incoming Equity Outreach Director 2015-2016! I am very passionate about creativity, education, and social justice issues on both local and global scopes. I look forward to developing this new role by creating a more open space in which all Con-Ed students will have opportunities to thrive.

Equity Outreach Goals: Open Environment & Positive Space

One of my goals as the Equity Outreach Director will be to create an open environment in which peers can engage in thoughtful conversations about controversial matters. I hope to act as a resource that will develop a well-informed Council. I believe the first step to encouraging equity comes from acknowledging social problems and discussing them from every possible point of view in order to arrive at a comfortable solution.

Opportunities for Success, Growth and Development

A major focus for me will be to establish new opportunities for students and to increase awareness of the existing opportunities. I hope to achieve this goal by continuously developing CESA's club start-up grant. I am very eager to find new ways for CESA to create more involvement opportunities for Con-Ed students, and I would like to implement the creation of an Equity Outreach Committee.

Equity Outreach Workshops

Most importantly, I plan to create at least four workshops throughout the next academic school year, centred on topics like sexual identity, gender, learning exceptionalities, disabilities, race, ethnicity and anti-bullying. I look forward to bridging gaps within the faculty of Con-Ed, and I am hopeful the next school year will hold several positive changes.

Since this is a new position, I would love to hear suggestions and ideas from other members of Council! Please do not hesitate to start up a conversation with me at any time (Facebook Vivi Shi or send me an email 11vs20@queensu.ca)! I am so honored to be a part of a Student Council that consists of such dedicated and passionate Con-Eddies, and I cannot wait to see the next year unfold!

Thank you,

Vivi Shi

Treasurer's Report

Hello Council and Extended Council 2015-2016!!!

I am so excited to be working with all of you and serving as Treasurer for the upcoming year! I'm looking forward to meeting everyone and working closely with you to create a budget and help you with sales in your new position!

This week I met the Athletic Sticks to briefly discuss the payment options for intramurals and BEWIC. I have worked with David on creating an estimated budget for next year.

This meeting I will be giving a presentation of the estimated budget for next year. These numbers are not finalized. There will be a more concrete budget created over the summer, which I will present to you at the first meeting back in the fall. If there is a new initiative or something different you want to try in your position this year, please feel free to contact me so that we can allocate enough funds for you.

You can contact me at 12jlb8@queensu.ca

Good luck on exams and have a great summer!

Jena Bowden

Events Director's Report

Hello Council and Extended Council,

I contacted the incoming and outgoing positions regarding their transitioning and creating a outline of events for the year. Currently, I have meeting scheduled for Community Affairs as well as my own transition meeting next week. I am very excited to be working with everyone under my umbrella next year!

I have already attended a meeting with the Athletic Sticks where we have outlined the new intramural bond policy. Ideally, the Athletic Sticks would like the money to be collected (in cash) by the captains of every team, placed into a safe place. Should a team default, the team will lose their bond. This makes attendance a team effort, and it easier for everyone overall as distribution and collected is made the responsibility of team captains.

Stay rad,

Joyce Chiang

Marketing and Design Director's Report

Hi everyone!

I am so excited to be taking on this position for the upcoming 2015/2016 year! I'm looking forward to working with many of you in terms of refreshing our brand image and bringing some exciting changes to the CESA brand. My umbrella and I have some great ideas in terms of collaboration and we can't wait to get working with you! On a personal note, I'm excited to get to know each of you and am looking forward to a fantastic year on Council.

Rebrand

I had my first official meeting with Sarah during which we discussed the changes we are looking to make to the CESA brand. One of our main goals is to bring consistency and professionalism to the brand in order to create a strong brand image that comparable to the AMS and ASUS. We have been discussing changes in terms of the logo, our colour scheme and design standards for our publications and marketing (fonts, image use, overall aesthetic). Our goal is to have a refreshed brand guideline put into policy for the new year and we're going to be working over the summer in order to facilitate this exciting rebrand!

Merchandise

One of the areas that I am looking to revamp is Con-Ed merchandise. Sarah and I have brainstormed a lot of ideas and can't wait to start selling some new merchandise that will attract some new customers! These products will be more general, and our aim is to emulate some of the techniques put in place through Tricolour Outlet and OTD. Our hope is to have some new products ready to go to debut at the Sidewalk Sale during Orientation Week. I am going to putting out a Merchandise Survey over the next couple of weeks to gather information about what Con-Ed students are interested in purchasing.

Photography Coordinators

This week I had my first meeting with Ashleigh and Laura who are our very first CESA Photography Coordinators! This is an exciting new position that is going to be taking the place of Yearbook Editors. Ashleigh and Laura have some fantastic ideas in terms of social media, physical products and community-building campaigns that we can't wait to unveil over the coming year. They will also be creating a Photography Committee that is going to increase the amount of photos taken and diversify the Con-Ed students who are in the photos. This position is going to see a lot of fresh ideas, many of them include working with others on council, i.e. bringing back Athlete of the Week, building on #LetsTalkTuesday and getting Year Photography

Representatives. I'm very excited to see what this team has to bring to this new position and will be excited to share their ideas with you over the year!

B.Ed Spread Editors

Due to scheduling issues, I wasn't able to have a meeting with Aryn and Liam yet, but am looking forward to doing so this week. What Kerri and her team did with the B.Ed Spread was fantastic and I have some exciting new ideas regarding the B.Ed Spread to continue their great work. Aryn and Liam's ideas they presented in their interviews will fit well with this new and exciting vision.

IT Administrator

Once again because of scheduling issues Cody and I haven't had a chance to sit down officially yet however I am excited to start working with him on his ideas for the website! One of our main goals is going to be revamping the website's navigation in order to make it a more valuable resource for Con-Ed students. Stay tuned for the exciting changes that Cody is going to be bringing to the website this year!

I'm super excited to start working with all of you!

Will Lowry

Marketing & Design Director

QCE Chair's Report

Hello everyone,

My team and I are super excited for the upcoming year. We have been getting to know each other better these past few weeks and could not be more eager to get started on the actual planning process of QCE 2016. Most of us have been transitioned at this point.

Morgan and I have submitted QCE's constitution (which is now on the CESA website for those of your interest in looking through it), our re-ratification form, and last year's budgets to the AMS in order for us to maintain our club's status and the associated privileges for the 2015-1016 school year. QCE's constitution can be found at <http://queenscesa.com/documents.php>

My team and I are in the works of creating a theme for QCE 2016. We are also brainstorming potential workshops and speakers. This process is very exhilarating for all of us. We hope to create a QCE 2016 blog this year that will act as a means of communication between future delegates (both internal and external), faculty members, future speakers, and of course the QCE executive team. We believe this will be a new and fun way to keep people updated throughout our planning process and the conference itself.

During the month of April we will be creating a projected budget for QCE 2016 as we are still currently using last years numbers. Once this is updated we will send it to the AMS and update our re-ratification form.

Lastly, we are in the works of setting up a meeting with the Faculty of ED so we can get to know them on a more personal basis, as we will be working with them closely this year.

That is all for now!

Sincerely,

Suzanna Floras-Matic

Head Teach's Report

Good evening, everyone,

I am so sorry I could not be in attendance this evening. A big thank you to whichever member of Teach Exec is currently presenting my report.

To the new members of council – welcome! To the returning members – welcome back. We look forward to working with all of you. 😊

This weekend, the Teaches attended ORT Training Sessions. The information presented is so important, and will be invaluable in September. We will be having our final Teach Meeting before the summer break this Tuesday (time flies, huh?).

The Teaches are working diligently to plan their respective events with their Day Groups. Meanwhile, Teach Exec is starting to establish a timeline for Orientation Week planning over the summer.

As was mentioned at the CESA AGM, please do not hesitate to email us over the summer! We will likely be in contact with you all about the role you will play in Orientation Week 2015.

Have the best summer. See you all in September~

Morgan (Susana, Callum, Dayna, and Emilie)
