

Making the Literacy Connection:

Programming for Preschoolers With Special Needs

Learn...

- to teach language skills to children of diverse needs and abilities
- to integrate rich literacy experiences into all areas of your program
- concrete examples of adaptations and modifications of early literacy activities used in an inclusive classroom

Wed. Feb. 16, 2011
1:00 p.m. – 2:30 p.m.

or

Wed. Feb. 23, 2011
7:00 p.m. – 8:30 p.m.

Presenter information:

Nelci Cabral, RECE, has 15 years of experience exclusively teaching preschoolers with varied needs and abilities in an inclusive model program at Frontenac Club Day Care. She also has partaken in the development of the School Readiness: Kindergarten /Preschool Program Development Instrument Manual and currently sits on the School Readiness Sub-Committee for Frontenac Early Learning and Childcare Network in Kingston.

For more information, or to register call (613) 546-9355.

