President's Report

Dear Council,

I'm excited to report that there is one, yes one, more week until Reading Week. This should make everyone excited!!!

On a more serious note, as you all know, CESA has been busy participating in and planning many events. First of all, I would like to congratulate all of those who were elected during the online voting on February 1st and 2nd. In particular, congrats to team LoKK who I look forward to transitioning over the next few months. I know that they will do an absolutely fabulous job.

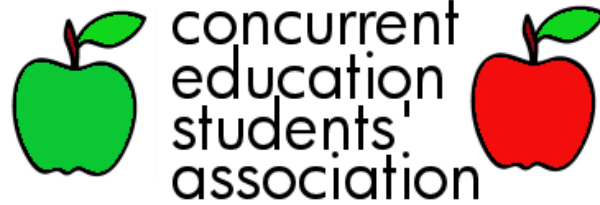

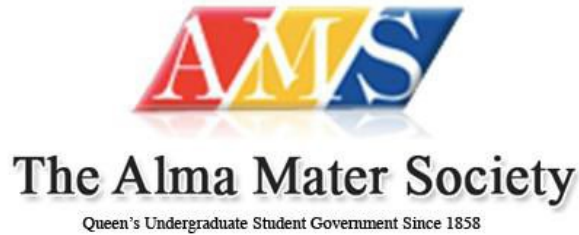

Since our last meeting, Jody and I have been depositing all of the funds from the workshops, social events and clothing. We're also getting ready for the big rush of Formal Ticket sales. I have put in an order for a reusable deposit bag, which we will be using instead of the plastic ones in order to maintain sustainability and limit the amount of space we use in the AMS safe. The bag should be coming in sometime next week, and when it does, it will be the responsibility of the council member with the first and last office hour of each day to pick it up and drop it off at the AMS desk. We are also looking into getting a replacement safe for the remainder of the year.

I will also be attending a TEAC Meeting this Thursday February 10th, which I will fill you in at the meeting. I also attended a record-short AMS meeting on the 3rd which Paul and Katie will fill you in on.

Thanks for bringing delicious desserts today!

That's all for now,

Anna

CESA Representative to the AMS Report

- AMS Assembly Feb, 3rd 2011
- Hi CESA! Feb 3rd marked the shortest assembly to date this school year. There was no guest speaker and few motions however there are a couple important dates to mark in your calendars. On march 4th and 5th Queen's will host "ASUS Queen's Canadian Leadership Conference" with guest speaker George Stroumbouloupoulos who will also be DJ-ing at Alfies.
- In addition, there is an ASUS scholarships for graduating students, a scholarship based on merit as opposed to financial needs. Visit queensasus.com for further details.
- Starting March 1st there will be a satellite studio for grad pictures in the red room in Kingston hall. Visit www.queensgradphotos.ca for more information.
- Cambodian silk scarves will be sold on Feb 16+17 in the A.R.C as a fundraiser to send Cambodian women to law school.
- Finally, get voting for your favourite teachers for the teaching awards!
- That's all
- Love
- Katie and Paul (and Jovial James).
