President's Report October 2nd 2011

Good Evening Council! Have I mentioned how good looking you are tonight?

Hope all has been well since we last assembled! I'm glad we haven't scared away the new members of Council (yet...). Only a few things have happened on my end, although it has been a busy period.

Office Policy

Thank you so much for everyone attending their Office hour this week. Just a reminder that the key is in the JDUC Office, not the AMS Office and as well when it is your Office Hour to be at the desk with your placard.

Training!

You are all super-troopers! We only have one more training and that is next week. We will start at 7pm as normal, but keep in mind the meeting will run long since Equity Training takes about an hour. (There might also be some extra goodies there that night as well....)

Financial Report

First, we are proud to say that the safe is still in the office. Sadly it has yet to be bolted to the ground and we are waiting for PPS to do that.

Second, we have compiled our budget info into a nice Quick Books version for everyone to look at. May your eyes feast at all its splendor (seriously, we worked hard on it)

Alex

University Senate

Tuesday, September 27, 2011

Hello Fellow Con-Eddies,

Here is an update regarding some of the topics discussed at the Senate meeting on September 27th. If you would like to access the entire agenda from the meeting, you can go to the following link:

<http://www.queensu.ca/secretariat/senate/agendasminutes/092711.html>.

I just wanted to remind you all that if you have any questions regarding the report or any other issues related to the University Senate, to contact me at 7jjp@queensu.ca.

Principal's Report (agenda item I.4)

- Thank you to the AMS and SGPS for their work on promoting voting in the upcoming election.
 - Please remember to vote if you have not already done so. For more information on voting, please visit the AMS website at <http://www.myams.org/>

Reports of Committees (agenda item III)

- Academic Planning Task Force (agenda item III.3)
 - There was a 30-minute discussion/information session on the Academic Plan. There have been some dissenting opinions regarding the Plan and I encourage you all to visit the following website to read an overview of the plan and its objectives: <http://www.queensu.ca/saptf/>.
 - Please note that there is a space for comments on the website.
 - If you have any concerns regarding the Academic Plan that you would like me to raise at Senate or the Student Senate Caucus meetings, please email me and we can discuss your concerns.

Motions (agenda item V)

- Academic consideration for students voting in the October 6, 2011 provincial election (agenda item V.1)
 - The Presidents of both the SGPS and the AMS put forward an “action” motion, which was passed, that would accommodate students who are unable to vote in their non-Kingston riding during election day to vote without academic repercussion.
 - The motion can be found at: http://www.queensu.ca/secretariat/senate/agendasminutes/092711/Sep27_11AppL1.pdf.
